California Secretary of State Candidate Forum

Thursday, October 9, 2014
6:30 - 7:30 pm

Presented by:

This forum is hosted by the Center for Latino Policy Research and made possible with the generous support of the Color of Democracy Fund.

The Candidates

Alex Padilla, Democratic candidate. State Senator from Los Angeles, member of the Senate Committee on Elections, past President of Los Angeles City Council and current President of the National Association of Latino Elected and Appointed Officials.

Pete Peterson, Republican candidate. Executive Director of the Davenport Institute for Public Engagement at Pepperdine University, with experience training and advising public officials on increasing civic participation through inclusive processes and the latest technology.

Community Panelists

Jidan Terry-Koon, Deputy Director,
Mobilize the Immigrant Vote

Jidan is a second generation Chinese American, born and raised in the San Francisco Bay Area. Before joining MIV, Jidan was a Senior Fellow at the Movement Strategy Center and she has two decades of experience in state, electoral and community organizing. Jidan has a Master's in Public Policy with a certificate in Urban and Regional Planning from the Woodrow Wilson School at Princeton University.

Morgan Prentice, Co-President,
California Common Cause of Berkeley

Morgan Prentice is a fourth year at the University of California, Berkeley pursuing a major in Peace and Conflict Studies and a minor in Public Policy. She is Co-President of the campus chapter of Common Cause.

Michelle Romero, Claiming our Democracy Director,
The Greenlining Institute

Michelle works to strengthen democracy by ensuring communities of color have a voice. In 2010-11, she led a state-wide campaign to involve people of color in California's state and congressional redistricting process. She partners with election officials, civil rights groups, and good government groups to make voting materials more accessible to communities of color and to protect the voting rights of the formerly incarcerated.

California Secretary of State Candidate Forum

Tonight's forum will be moderated by John Myers

John Myers is senior editor of KQED's new California Politics and Government Desk. A veteran of almost two decades of state political coverage, he served nine years as the statehouse bureau chief for KQED Public Radio and The California Report, and most recently as political editor for the Sacramento ABC-TV affiliate, News10 (KXTV). John served as moderator of the only 2014 gubernatorial debate, and was recently named by The Washington Post as one of the nation's most influential statehouse reporters.
